Abstract

The Boy Scouts of America youth organization was founded in 1910 and is one of the largest youth organizations in the country. The goal of the organization is to train boys in responsible citizenship, character development, and self-reliance through participation in a wide range of outdoor activities, and educational programs by combining educational activities and lifelong values with fun.

Scope and Content

The Boy Scouts of America record group consists largely of items donated by Sidney Strong and Camilla Greenlaw White. The donated materials include handbooks, books about boy-scouting, photographs and memorabilia. Other materials include articles from the Observer & Eccentric and programs from Boy Scout events.
